Army e-Learning

Table of Contents

Summary

Army e-Learning is a program that provides free, state-of-the art, Computer Based Training (CBT). The program provides free access to over 2,500 Information Technology, Business Skills, Foreign Language and Interpersonal Skills courses.

The Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS) verifies Soldier eligibility for the program and also posts completed courses to the Soldier's official ATRRS training record. Some courses are approved by the American Council on Education (ACE) to award college credit and credits count for promotion points.

Note: Only Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reservists, Army ROTC Cadet III and IV, and Department of Army civilians are authorized to register for this program.
